CONCERNS AND COMPLAINTS ABOUT SCHOOLS GUIDANCE NOTES FOR PARENTS

If you have a concern or complaint

We would like you to tell us about it. We welcome suggestions for improving our work in the school. Be assured that no matter what you are, wanting to tell us, our support and respect for you and your child in the school will not be affected in any way. Please tell us of your concern as soon as possible. It is difficult for us to investigate properly an incident or problem which has happened some time ago.

What to do first

Most concerns can be sorted out quickly by speaking with your child's class teacher. All staff will make every effort to resolve your problem informally. They will make sure that they understand your concerns and they will explain their own actions to you. They will ask what you would like the school to do to put things right. Of course, this does not mean that in every case they will come round to your point of view but it will help both you and the school to understand both sides of the question. It may also help to prevent a similar problem arising again.

What to do next

If you are dissatisfied with the teacher's response you can make a complaint to the Head teacher. This should be made in writing. Help with this is available from Parents Advice Centres or Citizens Advice Bureaux.

If your complaint is about an action of the Head teacher personally, then you should refer it to the Chair of Governors now. You can contact the Chair of Governors in writing, via Mrs Hanton, Admin. Manager, at the school.

The Head teacher will ask to meet you for a discussion of the problem. You may take a friend or someone else with you if you wish. The Head teacher will conduct a full investigation of the complaint and may interview any members of staff or pupils involved. You will receive a written response to your complaint.

If you are still unhappy

The problem will normally be solved by this stage. However, if you are still not satisfied you may wish to contact the Chair of the Governing Body to ask for referral of your complaint to the Complaints Committee of the governing body. It will then be heard by a group of three governors who have no previous knowledge of the problem and so will be able to give it a fresh assessment. You will be invited to attend and speak to the committee at a meeting which the Headteacher will also attend. The General Complaints Procedure statement explains how these meetings operate.

Further action

Complaints about school problems are almost always settled within schools but in exceptional cases it may be possible to refer the problem to an outside body such as the Ombudsman (in rare circumstances, but particularly in relations to admissions) or the Secretary of State for Education and Employment. Again there is more information on this in the General Complaints Procedure.
